Straw baling on the Waikouaiti River

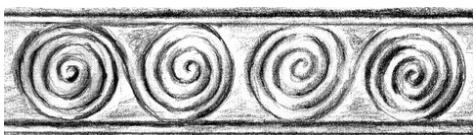

Positioning straw bales in place

Rose Clucas and Lyn Carter (Kāti Huirapa) worked with Mat Jarvis and Jeremy Innz to install straw bales at inaka spawning sites on the Waikouaiti River in early March. The project is part of an NSC BioHeritage-funded project to ensure the future sustainability of Kāti Huirapa inaka resource from the impact of climate change.

Thomas Chaney

Thomas Chaney, grandson of the late Lesley Clemett and Herman Lont (formally of Port Chalmers), is a Head Student at Otumoetai College in Tauranga. This week he is travelling to Morioka, Japan to attend The International Youth Educational - Ecological Forum at Morioka Chou High School with other students from around the world. He will be speaking, singing a waiata and performing a haka while he is there. His speech will be on the topic, 'What an Ideal School Looks Like in 2030'. Thomas will be studying Health Science at Otago University next year, and hopes to be accepted into Medicine in 2020.

Kace Katerama Palmer-Kean

Our champ plays for the Southern Rugby Club in Dunedin and he has just won the most Valuable Player Award for the club. Kace is nine years old and attends Tainui School. He is the mokopuna of Koa Whitaū- Kean and Ross Kean of Moeraki and John Palmer- Matakaea and Tracy Nuttal of Ōtautahi. His dedicated parents are Laurie Richard Kean and Tessa Palmer.

Suzanne Ellison MNZM

On May 16th, 2018, the Ellison whānau of Karitane embarked on a hikoi to Wellington to celebrate Suzanne Ellison's investiture at Government House where she became a Member of the New Zealand Order of Merit.

Suzanne's award was announced in the New Year's Honours list 2017 and was bestowed for her life-long services to Māori, the arts, and governance. This particular ceremony was of extra special significance because Suzanne was one of sixteen female recipients recognised on this day to mark 125 years of Women's Suffrage.

Six of our whānau, two of whom had travelled from Australia, were lucky enough to be invited guests of Dame Patsy Reddy, Governor General of New Zealand.

Dame Patsy congratulated Suzanne for her dedication and commitment to various causes, particularly her work for Ngāi Tahu, and her work for Te Waka Toi (the Māori Arts Council) and Creative NZ but the commendation included a long, long list of other mahi in the arts and governance during her distinguished career.

Afterwards, the Governor General took the time to meet each of us, chatting and posing for photographs during the informal afternoon tea. We were then free to wander the public spaces of Government House, mingling with other recipients and their families.

It was a great honour to have been a part of Suzanne's special day and needless to say we are all very proud of her achievements. Truly a well-deserved award.

Upcoming Puketeraki

Hui-ā-Whānau

Fri 31 aug- Sun 2 Sept

A few weeks ago, we had our first Puketeraki Hui-ā-Whānau Wānaka. Thank you to all of our whānau who created opportunities and made the most of the weekend. We had Taua Phyllis and the talented weavers working on their korowai, Pōua Brendan took a crew out to connect with our awa and Hākui Jaime taught an awesome baking session with our tamariki in Te Reo Māori. Everybody worked together beautifully as a whānau. The wānaka created a space for our tamariki to be tamariki at their marae and for us to live together as a large whānau as well as share kōrero about our whakapapa.

The date for our final Hui-ā-Whānau weekend is Friday 16 – Sunday 18 November

Please let us know if you plan on coming or have any pātai.

Pruning Workshop

On 11 August we had Jason Ross arrived at the Mara to give us a hands on demonstration on pruning our orchard trees. We had a good turn out of 10 or so. Jason taught us a raft of new skills on training fruit trees rather than cutting here there and anywhere. Of the twenty five trees that were planted last year there was just one that failed to take off. Jason commented on how well the trees have done so far. After tending to the trees it was time for tea and a bun, which was enjoyed by all.

Artefacts gifted to Runaka

On Friday 17 August we received from Jesse Beard, an ex-Karitane resident, his collection of artefacts most of which had been gathered from this area. Jesse is a registered collector but has decided it's time to pass on his collection. Kathy (nee Kent) & Roy Coombes who have known Jesse for many years, came along for the occasion.

Jesse appreciated the gathering & the chance to reconnecting with old friends as well as the chance to go through his collection and talk about where the pieces were gathered etc. The Runaka is also a registered collector so we are able to hold taoka / artefacts.

We have a taoka cabinet at the marae where some items are displayed and we are considering how we care for our growing collection of taoka as well as archival material as space is at a premium in our filing room and we haven't had the staff capacity to manage the collections in the way we would like. We'll have more to report on this in the next news.

Kāti Huirapa Runaka Pānui

Exciting update for the Te Reo Rakatahi i Otago LEOTC Programme

E te whānau, nāia te mihi o te Tau Hou ki a koutou! It is my great pleasure to introduce myself in my new capacity as the new facilitator for our Learning Experiences Outside the Classroom (LEOTC) programme, Te Reo Rakatahi i Otago.

The LEOTC programme has been running for almost 15 years and provides opportunities for schools in the Otago region to experience te reo Māori me ōhona tikaka in our takiā at the marae and beyond, including hands-on practical activities such as waiata ā-rika, mau rākau, raranga, poi, pūrākau and local history. Kāti Huirapa ki Puketeraki holds the contract to deliver the LEOTC programme until December 2019.

Over the next few months I will be working with our fabulous and dedicated team of tutors and connecting with other LEOTC providers (such as Oronokui Ecosanctuary, Otago Museum, Toitū and the Dunedin Public Art Gallery) to further develop kaupapa- and wānaka-based programmes in our rohe.

For more information, you can reach me by emailing leotc@puketeraki.nz.

Weaving Wānaka at Te Whanau Arohanui

On Sunday 19 August I visited the Te Whānau Arohanui in Waitati near Dunedin, where members of Whiria ka Aho ki Puketeraki roopu were learning the mahi of making various articles used by our Tipuna before colonisation. They were led by a very experienced Kaiako, Lisa Phillips. You will see in the photo some of the work they accomplished on this the second wānaka but another 2 weekend wānaka are to come.

A list of the treasures I saw on the day were:

- Waka kura [pepe pod]
- Wakawairua, [coffin]
- Epu whenua [afterbirth]
- Waka koiwi [ashes]

I was also very privileged to be shown around Lisa's workshop where she makes her flax paper, the finest I have ever seen. She will use the paper to line the woven containers.

The next two wānaka will be to make waka wairua. The task will be great! The preparation of the harakeke before they even arrive to do the weave is significant they are very dedicated and have increased their skills this year so much, continuing to add to there skill base there will be another wanaka later in the year learning to make kete whakairo they will be staying on our marae for those wānaka.

Labour weekend we will be teaching how to make muka in the weave room. All welcome, we meet about 10 am have a shared lunch then finish up about 3pm.

HUI TE RANGIORA - MAINTAINING THE LINKS

The first entry in the Baptismal Register was made on January 10th 1904 when Katarina Ruru Te Wahia was baptised. Her parents were Tamati & Hera Te Wahia. The third entry is Teone Rangiroa, my father, who was baptised on 1 January 1905. He was born 15 May 1901 so there was a delay in being baptised for some now unknown reason. His sponsors were Ani Parata, Clive Evans and William Parata.

My entry is No. 161 on 22nd September 1957. My nieces Aroha (No. 202) and Melissa (No. 203) were both baptised on 20 February 1977 and the photo below was taken following the baptism on 24th April 2011 of my great-niece Hana Nikuru (No. 259). Her sister Maearoa was baptised Easter Day 16th April 2006.

The history within the Baptismal Register is fascinating and I encourage anyone interested in their children being baptised at Huirapu Rangiora and continuing the link with both our lovely church and the Register to find out more. There is an Anglican service on the 4th Sunday of the month taken by Juan Kinnear, the priest for this area.

Whā 2018

Kia ora koutou,

We are getting more excited by the day as all the strands of this business are woven together.

August has been a good month for KMT with some University and community tours happening and more booked in September and throughout the year. They have been a great way to segue into the more competitive environment of tourism.

Alex, Waiaiki, Jessie and Riki hosted the Southern iSite for a famil tour. If you're unfamiliar with the term famil, it is a free tour for people in the tourism industry who are able to promote the business. These can be really useful and the Southern iSites can now talk about our tours with confidence.

Waiaiki is working on an appropriate korero that will tell the stories of the place and people of Kāti Huirapa and Karitane to a tourism market. This will form the basis of the korero that our guides will share. We are excited about getting the website finished so we can properly launch KMT and get into the New Zealand tourism sites. Once the website is finished we can hit social media. Image based digital platforms suit the natural beauty of Kāritane quite well.

The new waka hulls are arriving mid September, much thanks to the Mules whānau for transporting them down, these will be put together to form a double hull waka.

Alex spent some time looking into new paddles and eventually settled on Kialoa carbon fibre paddles from the US, apparently you can drive a truck over them.

We hope to officially launch Kāritane Māori Tours mid September once the new waka have arrived, we will keep you all posted on a date. If you're interested in booking a tour or even tour guiding for KMT send us an email at karitanemaoirtours@gmail.com

Ngā mihi nui ki a koutou, Tania and Alex

HUI-A-WHANAU - 27-29 July 2018, PUKETERAKI MARAE

The whānau weekend was a nice way to reconnect with a variety of different whānau and get away from our normal daily routine. It's nice to be able to come to our marae and enjoy the surroundings with the beautiful sunrises and sunsets.

I enjoyed a very relaxing shoulder mirimiri from Rauhina. It was lovely way to start my Saturday morning. The tamariki were enjoying themselves making Anzac biscuits and they tasted good. It was very interesting to see our weavers on the marae sharing their skills and knowledge with some of us that have never done it before. Thank you for allowing that to happen.

Pōua Brendan took some of the whānau out on the waka on the awa. The bonfire with marshmallows was a lovely way to finish off our day even with the drizzly rain. We always enjoy our time at the marae and sometimes it's hard to leave a special place at the end of our whānau weekends. Thank you to the whānau who created the delicious kai for Friday night dinner.

Nā Kate Bateman

P.S. Waiaiki makes the best toast

NOHOAKA - SEASONAL CAMPING 2018-2019

TE ONE O MAKUKU / 1200 COAST ROAD, KARITANE

Kaupapa tuatahi. Te One o Makuku (1200 Coast Rd) is a designated HAUORA environment on which we aspire to be smoke free, alcohol free, violence free, gang patch free and whānau-centric.

This is in line with the values expressed in our Strategic Plan:

Kaitiakitaka - building wisely and seeking good use of our natural resources for the future.

Kaikokiritaka - striving for excellence, able to evolve, building leadership capacity.

Rēhia - having fun and following healthy lifestyles within our whānau.

NOHOAKA – SEASONAL CAMPING 2018-2019

We are fast approaching the nohoaka seasonal camping season for 2018/2019 at our wonderful nohoaka site at 1200 Coast Road, Karitane.

Once again we are taking site registrations and there are 12 sites available along the length of the terrace above the beach. The sites are approximately 12 metres x 12 metres providing room for caravan/campervan/tent, an awning, seating and barbecue area. Sites will be available from 1 October 2018 through to 30 April 2019.

There is no cost to registered runaka members. Reciprocity is part of the kawa and this can be expressed in many ways such as joining in for caring for the mara kai, helping to keep the grass down around the nohoaka sites, and helping to keep the nohoaka a safe and healthy place to be.

Allocation of sites will be decided by the Runaka Office following the close of registrations on Monday 29th September. Any sites not allocated will be available for casual applications during the summer season.

How to apply for a nohoaka site? Registered members should fill out the registration form below and email to Maria at admin@puketeraki.nz & return to the office by Monday 29th September at the very latest.
